Performances

Close-Up Magic

- Terry performed a “Hopping Half” routine
- Steve B. performed Al Thatcher’s “4-5-6” and then taught it to the group
- David C. performed a card trick he learned from the Columbus Dispatch where no matter where the cards were cut, when you spelled out the cards they were in order.
- Dave B. performed a really nice ring and string routine with a Chinese coin.
- Steve P. predicted the total of a math equation that came from cards handed out with numbers and were randomly picked.
- Clyde had the four aces placed in a packet of cards face up and when they were shuffled and folded on top of each other, the aces were the only cards face up in the pack.
- Jack W. told a “crime story” and taught us how to force a card in a line up formation...He even had instructions for everyone.
- Matt S. (Guest) had 5 cards removed from the pack and then while his back was turned, told us which cards had been removed.
- Chris Ragis (Guest) – performed an Ambitious Card routine
- Tom K. performed a poker deal called “Well Appointed Stud” from the April 2001 Linking Ring
- Red P. made a credit card float in his hands
- Ron F. performed Richard Saunders’ “Extreme Burn”

Stand Up

- Steve B. performed a mind reading effect with color paper balls
- David C. had a card selected and then showed a paper with Chinese writing on it, after the paper was folded it showed the 7 of diamonds.
- Dave B. performed a “wiz coat” routine from his summer library show
- Jack W. performed a sympathetic Silks

- George S. performed a mini mutilated parasol routine
- Dave B. – performed and taught Aldo Colombini’s “Pick Me”
